Numb. 11244.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday April 28, to Saturday May 2, 1772.

BY a Vote of the House of Commons, passed this Day, Directions are given to the Bank of England, to receive the Consent of the Proprietors of the 3 per Cent. Consolidated Annuities, and the Reduced 3 per Cent. Annuities, payable there; and also of the Old South Sea and New South Sea Annuities, and of Annuities granted Anno 1751, to subscribe their Stock upon the Terms therein mentioned:—This Notice is therefore given, that Books will be opened at the Bank of England, at Eleven o'Clock in the Morning on Monday next, to receive such Subscription and Consent.

Stockholm, April 14. The King of Sweden has fixed the 29th of May for his Coronation, and the 1st of June for the Homage of the States: This has been already notified to all the Orders; and Preparations are making accordingly.

The two Plena of this last Week have been employed upon the Report of the Secret Deputation concerning the Conduct of the Senate since the last Dyet: In the House of Nobles it has only been read, and lies upon the Table; but last Saturday the other Orders took it into Consideration, and there was a Division in every one of them.

In the Clergy the Question was: Those, who are of Opinion to approve the Report of the Secret Deputation according to Mr. Brandtberg's Votum, in Consequence of which the Senators Walwich, Schwerin, and Sinclair, shall receive a Reprimand, and the others be declared to have forfeited the Confidence of the States, are to write Ay, and those who are of the contrary opinion are to write No; if the Noes have it, the Confidence of the States is to be continued to all the Senators, according to the Votum of Mr. Von Post: The Ayes were 34, and the Noes 17.

In the Burghers the Question was put differently: Those, who approve the Report of the Secret Deputation according to the Votum of Mr. Brandtberg, in Consequence of which the Senators Rudenskiold, Bielke, Ulric Sceffer, von Hermanson, Beckfries, Posse, and Barck, have forfeited the Confidence of the States, but it is continued to the Senators Walwich, Schwerin, and Sinclair, who are only to be reprimanded, are to write Ay; those who are of the contrary Opinion are to write No: If the Noes have it, the Senators Beckfries, Scheffer, and Barck, are declared to have forfeited the Confidence of the States, and the others are to receive a Reprimand: The Ayes were 68, and the Noes 41.

The Resolution of the Peasants was precisely the same as that of the Clergy, only with the Addition, That the Senators, who had forfeited the Confidence of the States, should have no Pensions.

The King and Queen set out for Ekholmsund last Saturday, to remain there till after Easter.

War-Office, April 27, 1772.
